

I just wanted to thank everyone for their kind thought and support over the last couple months after the death of my husband Michael. I am now back to work after some time regrouping and am now knee deep in accreditation and statistics...Did I once tell someone that IDP was the perfect job...Hummm. Anyway, just wanted to say thanks.

Linda Hunter

June 13, 2006